COLLABORATION SCORECARD

Bookboon Learning is a digital learning service provider primarily focused on corporate learning & development. Bookboon Learning offers eBooks, Audio Learning, Virtual Classrooms & Online Courses for companies and teams, which are used for employee personal development and soft skills training.

The cooperation for the product "Virtual Classrooms" includes interactive keynotes in the areas of leadership and sales, in which practical and bite-sized learnings are passed on to our customers.

Aaron Jacobs has an infectious personality coupled with in-depth sales knowledge - that's why we are delighted that Aaron has been sharing his knowledge with our international clients in our exclusive "Virtual Classrooms" format already since 2021 and we are happy to be able to call him one of our regular keynote speakers. Our Virtual Classroom format is aimed at business clients who want to give their employees the opportunity for self-directed learning and thus ensure that they can deliver their best performance. Aaron is one of the speakers making that happen.

Aaron is sympathetic, reliable, highly professional as well as flexible and Bookboon Learning highly recommends Scorecard as a collaboration partner.
